It's springtime in Cyprus. And recent reports from Sweden tell us about cold winter storms with snow all over the country. So all ranks in Swedcon are glad they applied for a winter battalion and as you see from the pictures the Swedes enjoy the Cyprus spring.

Seen below is 2nd Lt Rolf Laggar, Info, briefing the boys in the sun outside Polar Camp in Athienou.

And in Camp Siam in Louroujina the soldiers are happy to be able to take their coffee-break outdoors. There's not too much space in the mess.

WHO IS THE FIRST TO KISS THE BRIDE?

Right — it's our Force Commander, wishing Ingrid Jörneskog from Sweden a long and happy marriage. It was his ADC, Anders L. Dahlman, who brought down his fiancee from the snow and cold for a real summer wedding in Cyprus. The ceremony took place at Flamingo hotel in Larnaca and was attended by some 50 members from the Swedish Battalion.

It was a sunny wedding. The church was decorated with palm leaves and mimosa and the chaplain's words were accompanied by the sound of the waves. The guests enjoyed the wedding champagne on the beach. Below the best man, Lt Bjarke, offers the couple a refill.
