

Statement attributable to the Spokesman for the Secretary-General on the increase in violence in Israel and the West Bank

New York, 11 November 2014

The Secretary-General is deeply concerned about the upsurge in violence and killings over the past few days in Israel and the West Bank. Violence only deepens distrust, while making more distant the prospects for peace between Israelis and Palestinians.

The Secretary-General calls on all sides to do everything they possibly can to avoid further exacerbating an already tense environment. His thoughts are with the families of the victims.

ENDS